As of now, The Donald has no official chatrooms.

posted 2 days ago by Doggos [M] +8009 / -5

We have seen an increase in unofficial chatrooms (such as Telegram, Signal, Matrix, Discord etc) claiming that they are officially affiliated with TheDonald.win.

We do not have any chatrooms, since our Discord server was just banned.

We only had one Discord server, which was called "The Donald". We were also not involved in any January 6 servers.

We have TheDonald.win and we have Twitter.

This is not to say alternative chatrooms are bad, just that we are not affiliated with them.

TheDonald.win is next. This isn't dooming, this is FACT.

The great purge and censorship movement is on our backdoor and is happening NOW!

We need to prepare for the take down of TheDonald because it's HAPPENING and is going to HAPPEN.

BREAKING: Apple is currently threatening to ban Parler -- the free speech alternative to Twitter -- unless the service enacts draconian censorship policies demanded by left-wing Big Tech oligarchs, according to two sources familiar with Apple's threats.

What are they so afraid of that they are banning everything in site? The stifling of voices should terrify every American, no matter the political view.

I agree... This is a information war. The only reason the left is succeeding, is because they have the media behind them. What is happening now directly coincides with a book I have called the Turner Diaries. It is uncanny how synonymous the book and reality are.

This is the end result of classical liberalism. Sure, we've been a corporatist state for awhile but classical liberalism is as far as the right wing does in America. We take loss after fucking loss and tie our hands behind our back by saying shit like "oh they're a private company of course they can discriminate".

And before muh cake baker. That man shouldn't have had to bake a fucking cake and Twitter shouldn't he allowed to ban Trump supporters. Use some common sense.

America's enemy is global corporatism. Jeff Bezos and Mark Zuckerberg have done more damage to this country than AOC and Bernie Sanders. FACT

Stop arguing about muh fake socialism versus muh fake capitalism and focus on the culture and social issues. America First is inevitable.

They're are 100% in panic mode, banning everything and everyone.

Mwahaha.... It's mood though. The Pedes Legion saw this coming and we're not freaking out.

All these 1A censorship are redpilling a lot of sleeping conservatives.

The censorship is helping us. Not demoralizing at all. Keep censoring us, more people will come to our side.

So true. I was a brainwashed leftie, what woke me up was when the_donald got banned from reddit. Seemed unfair to me to ban an entire political party from talking, even though at the time I didn't support Trump, which make me look deeper into the truth. Much deeper.

I've redpilled 2 people so far. It's hard, most people can't admit they might be wrong. I get it though. There's so much propaganda out there, that even if you try to get both sides of the story, you end up finding well crafted 'deboonking' from multiple sources. So I understand where normies are coming from.

I was honestly demoralized after the events of the 6th. Then, as you pointed out, the censorship activities made me think "this is not going to end well for them, definitely hope they continue and escalate".

They'd better watch themselves, everyone I know who has a CB radio also has guns. While those devices can be jammed, they're not going to like what happens when the jam is freed...

A lot of perceptive pedes have been echoing how we've been disturbingly paralleling them for a while now in social phenomena, straight down to the "private entities" receiving seed funding in collaboration with the government. Just because we don't eat rice as a staple food doesn't mean we are completely different.

I dunno why we experienced such a sharp brain drain aside from the domain change (the "party" attitude approaching the 1/6/2021 rally sent off alarms in my head), but I warned people of not becoming complacent and yet that is what happened. I called for people to publicly advocate for Trump to invoke IA to normalize it and people called me a glowie. Now it's all a lot of people are pinning their hopes on.

In some sense, we are worse than China. At least there, the government is honest about their censorship but they also don't entertain bullshit like critical race theory or make their citizens accept ideology that goes against basic biology. Here, we have a government that tells us daily we live in the land of the free while cancelling everyone who displays symptoms of wrong-think. Ideas such as believing kids shouldn't be chopping off their dicks and taking hormone blockers at age 8 is considered hate speech. Not even China would censor such talks.

This. We moved into the endgame of the communist war of subversion November third. I am currently in a remote corner of my new battleground with hubby and spend all day yesterday showing people the archived stuff on my laptop to bring them up to speed here. Most of these folks have extremely limited Internet, only cable and landline phones.

But they still knew something was very wrong with what they were seeing. Well, now they know, and planning is happening the old school ways.

Thanks, fellow lady! Unfortunately the young women of our country are a product of the MSM, social media, and our college/university system.

I used to be a "feminist". I was raised by my parents, especially my dad, who told me I was strong, smart, and capable. I learned to be financially independent.

However, I learned through my relationships that we cannot emasculate our men. Men need to feel needed. Men need to be leaders. And that's ok. We cannot do it all on our own.

Men and women have their place together in society. We need and complement each other.

I am lucky to know a couple of badass gun toting Trump supporting women. Who still manage to love the heck out of their kiddos and cook dinner every night. But I agree, the young ladies are often lost.

God bless!

I was a massive liberal in my teens. I played basketball and had a bunch of gay bball friends. I followed the pack and claimed to be democrat. We adopted our biracial son in my mid 20's and all of a sudden became red-pilled by Michael Berry in Houston. ALL my old high school friends were shocked.

I went from listening to hip hop in my car to talk radio. I went from spending time in the bar to the church. Ironically, all my siblings thought I was radical in high school to them becoming radical liberals in their 20's. It's so dang strange how the tables turned. At this point, I'm so angry I don't know if I can maintain relationships with my liberal friends and family. I just pray to God my kids see the light and aren't blinded by falsehoods.

That means unless you get most of your assets out digitally, and have them within touching distance that can be easily bugged out then it is likely they will destroy it or seize it. Get started on converting all liquid assets into physicals, and convert on digital assets into liquid.

Trump and his supporters are being made societal lepers by the media and the spineless GOP. You can have people wake up and realize this censorship is terrible, but they will NOT be joining us. And since they're most likely left wingers who've been asleep for so long, they will not go towards a spineless and boring GOP. They will just think they have no political home.

Parler and other sites run on Apple Google or aws (Amazon web service) backbones. If they don't like you they can turn you off.

Netwrks seems to use all non big tech backbone servers. Less reliable, can be blocked by big tech dns services, no verification, no cookies, will attract glowies in droves and you will be tracked....but it will be a free speech zone and you will be anonymous to others, but not to the man

They can't take the heads of something that keeps duplicating every-time one is cut off.

Basically it anonymizes who you are.

There are three servers you connect to - the entrance, middle, and end. The purpose is so the entrance won't know the end server, and the end server won't know the entrance server. In order to be found out, all three servers would need to be compromised.

I know.

I'm more concerned about future members really. If TDW went dark web, people who are red pill'd might be reluctant to join simply for that reason - associating the dark web with pedos and illegality. There'll also be a lot of non-techsavvy people who just won't know how to get on TOR.

permalink parent save report block reply

- einexile 9 points 2 days ago +9 / -0

It doesn't need to go exclusively dark web. What it needs is a dark web core so that clearnet users aren't scattered and lost when sites like this one are shut down.

Meanwhile what needs to happen is to spread out. Not to replace this site in advance as happened with the subreddit, but to have the replacement on hand as we did in the months leading up to the plebbit quarantine. However I think a main fallback such as this won't survive for very long, and that's where the hydra metaphor comes in.

This also goes for IRC. One main channel as a hub for many small channels on multiple networks, with a hidden channel hosted on its own server for the purpose of coordinating between these.

People need to stop drinking beer and watching commieball on TV and start learning this crap. Freedom isn't always easy.

When free speech on political topics has been made effectively illegal via government-controlled corporations, the only way we will be able to speak freely is by using the same tools that criminals sometimes resort to.

A tool is a tool. TOR does not promote illegal activity. It is an anti-censorship tool. TOR only has the stigma of being "for shady people" because up to this point, most law-abiding citizens could speak their minds and conduct business on the clearweb with few repercussions. Therefore, most people using TOR were only doing so to anonymize illegal activity.

I can assure you that people in communist China who are desperate to speak freely with friends and family outside the great firewall don't view TOR as a no-go because "omg criminals use it". While I respect where you are coming from, I disagree with you when it comes to the situation we are in.

TOR is not a honey pot. The times when the feds have successfully busted people who were running TOR sites, it was due to OPSEC failures (eg. using the same screennames or email addresses somewhere else) or, in very rare cases, advanced browser exploits which were immediately patched by the TOR team afterwards.

If people in communist China can use a tool like TOR to speak against their government, I can assure you it is good enough for those who want to speak freely in the U.S., which has not (yet) reached that level of totalitarianism.

No. It's just that European conservatism includes a strong central state that supports traditional families with generous social support. It's exactly the same in Hungary. There is no such thing as a small government conservative in Europe. Remember that H's party was NATIONAL SOCIALIST.

High bureaucracy, high and silly taxes, high social security net. Nothing unusual for Europe but very different from the US. There isn't really an equivalent to the Republican Party here (in terms of economic principles, not being the snakes they are now).

Polish wages have never been that great (thanks half a century of communism) so people prefer the extra security from the government as they are not able to save up much in case they lose their jobs. Plus a lot of political parties promise additional government handouts - including the current ruling one. More handouts = more taxes to pay for them

The economic situation is slowly improving but high government involvement means high inefficiency so a lot of the would be gains are lost in a black hole somewhere. A lot of people see that and they are rightfully frustrated.

I understand that... .

The point of mastodon is decentralization. The site owner can have any policies they want.

Yes I know. But you realize that by saying what they said that its obvious where their loyalties lie. If they can get rid of you for that, they can get rid of you for being a trump supporter. We need to stop using any business that is scared to death of free speech. It is not a viable alternative.

permalink parent save report block reply

Newsflash: this site says the same thing in the sidebar. This site has rules too.

Also, they don't "get rid of you" since they can't get rid of you. All they can do is not put you in their list. Which is fine, we don't want to be listed, we want privacy. Members only.

The whole reason Mastodon was created is to foster free speech. They are an anti censorship, decentralized platform, that anyone can use for any purpose. Just don't expect the ruffians to show up on the main page.

IRC and NNTP (USENET) lol. But really, both are robust and were designed to be decentralized. Universities would have their servers, ISPs would have theirs and people would connect to their provider's server. If someone's server went down there were dozens of others that relayed the info and so it was tough to knock out the network as a whole.

If encryption can be used on these protocols it may be worth a shot since IRC is pretty much as old as the Internet and thus would likely have apps on iOS / Android. All these new protocols seem to mostly have TestFlight iOS apps that you can't get in the store, and if Apple is starting to go on a tirade against uncensored hangout spots I doubt they'll start removing ancient apps and protocols to do it.

If you're always on the move, as in never transmitting from the same location twice, ever, you could get away with it. However the FCC with their equipment or anyone with skills at radio direction finding could quickly find you, if there were any pattern or regularity to your transmissions.

As the Americans learned so painfully in Earth's final century, free flow of information is the only safeguard against tyranny. The once-chained people whose leaders at last lose their grip on information flow will soon burst with freedom and vitality, but the free nation gradually constricting its grip on public discourse has begun its rapid slide into despotism. Beware of he who would deny you access to information, for in his heart he dreams himself your master.

Civ 6 isn't bad, but AC is the GOAT would love a remake. Customizing units, terraforming the planet. Using the "barbarians" to your benefit... so many things deserve revisiting, I'd love an AC2

I particularly liked the combat early on, so much more use for both air and sea units even in the early game. The CIVs themselves also played so differently that it was a bunch of different strategy games in one.

It doesn't need much moderation if you are not trying to hide something or suppress your users. Being afraid to offend someone is exactly what got us here. There should be no censorship of any kind, with the exception of extreme cases. If you don't agree with someone's opinion then suck it up and move on, don't try to take everything you don't like down.

The big tech Titans are doing the bidding of the uniparty and DS. They are all terrified that there will be a challenge to their power as they know the 2020 election was stolen from its rightful winner. They want to ensure that we have no places online to speak our minds or ever try to organize and mount any kind of challenge. What we are seeing is a typical Stalinist purge. When the left says it wants to kill and destroy you- it means it.

I said the only way Trump and America wins is to declare Martial Law (weeks ago not wait until now).

Along with it he had to seize control of all social media and MSM and telecoms.

It was a hard truth is THIS is why.

The left knows that if they can shut us down from talking that we will be alone and not be able to stand up.

Yeah Trump is being delusional, frankly, in his belief that he can be a media influencer after this. They will deplatform and destroy him with everything they've got.

Seizing power is - or, I fear, was - the only hope. He blew his shot: we took the capitol for him yesterday and he condemned us.

We can only hope now that someone with a true plan arises one day.
